We therefore heg leave to call your attention to the following facts. Our Mr. O. H. Pratt was connected in business with H. L. Sill retired from active business in 1853, retaining a special interest notil 1856, when all connection ceased, and since that time has not packed uny BUTTER for shipment. From 1847 to 1856 Mr. Pratt personally selected and supervised the packing of every pound of BUTTER that left this port branded "H. L. Sill," in 1857 and 1858 he branded "O. H. Pratt, successor to H L. Sill," but since that time has professed to let his BUTTER go under his own proletted to let his BUTTER go under his own name and stand upon its merits. UNRIVALLED Mr. PRATT, as Mr. Sill's partner and successor. PERFUMERY, is the only party legally entitled to use the brand, "H. L. Sill," and the present packers of the Worranted to retain its excelent quality in any so-called " Sill's brand" of BUTTER, knowing RIMMEL'S TOILET VINEGAR, to supersed Est de Cologne. RIMMEL'S LAVENDER WATER, distilled from themselves "sole agents;" the fallacy of which is apparent from the fact that Mr. Sink has not Mitcham flowers. packed any HITTER for over thirteen years. Another Lay of the Stamp Act.

A chairman straight, togu de debate!

You know what the Jun've come about

"Y'n dan't oatch me bere long.

" Maclean you say, and none say may, "Bully, Maclean, for you!"

Twas in the court-house of Hongkong

Though some of them thought

The merchants gathered then,

Fortornly perched on dusty deska:

They braved the diet like men ;

Young connecty ought

They met to hear read

To be we cleared that disorderly pen.

What Bir Richard and said

But they found this a bore

But when it was over they sat.

And asked with a smile

Then outspoke brave Sir Granville,

· And nothing to amend.

That howe'er this may end

This tax I would defend.

· Will still stand here I wow.

" From its immertal rack.

" In th' Oriental Bank."

But not of long duration.

Not more to be loguacious.

Thus errengthoned be's a giant

Is very effic cious!

Cares not to be defiant.

Deserved for Macao

We shall not see this harbor free

It hared them to listen to Richard's renly

And not gulte knowing what to be ut,

What was thought of this style,

Said his meeting was called but and dried.

In reply their humble address.

For they'd read it before.

long age in the newspaper press.

Till at last a tall banker

Dist laying some reneunt

Young Tunnuchy the sheriff

Spoke holdly to the throng,

" And I've get loss to do.
